The Selectboard has decided to hold their meetings in-person again. Social Distancing will be employed. If you have not been vaccinated, a mask is required. Masks are still recommended for all participants.

The Guild Hall is being opened to the public for this one town function. The building continues to remain closed. Appointments for research are accepted for one person at a time. For walk-in business, please knock on the door during regular business hours and we will serve you one at a time. Phone, email and mail business is still recommended and encouraged.
